CALMER AT THE CLOSE. CHICAGO, June 15, 1 p. m.—The closing half hour on 'Change witnessed an almost complete subsidence of the intense excitement which prevailed when July wheat broke to 70 cents. THE MILWAUKEE MARKET UNSETTLED. MILWAUREE, June 15, 12:30 p.m .- There is an unsettled feeling on 'Change, owing to the conflict-ing reports from Chicago in regard to Kershaw &

Co. and the news of fresh failures. July wheat sold down to 71 and reacted to 73. THE NEW YORK MARKET ALSO BREAKS AGAIN. NEW YORK, June 15.—The wheat market since the last report has been very much excited and nervous. June delivery suffered the most, breaking fully 3%. July also followed with a decline of 234, with a good deal of unloading. Later months are off from lalic., as affected by the depression in June and July. The speculative dealings, while less than yesterday, reach a fair aggregate, over 12,000,000 bushels changing hands up to this hour. TRYING TO SAVE THE MARKET.

Dramatic Scene in a Chicago Banking House This Morning.

ness, was there. Kershaw's face showed lines President D. W. Irelin, of the bank, and of the firm of Irwin, Green & Co., was the most determined looking man of the lot. Cashier De War, of the ank, and several of the directors were present. This consultation began just as soon as Wiltshire got off the Cincinnati train at the foot of Lake street, and hurried to the bank. He was accompanied by a good-looking, smooth-faced young fellow, whose sack-coat bulged, as clerks' coats sometimes do when they are hurrying to the bank to make deposits. The pair at the stored the bank to make deposits. The pair at once entered the bank and the directors' room, where the others were to meet them,

A STRIKING SCENE. The scene presented will not soon be forgotten. Kershaw was busy writing. His face was haggard, but the man looked brave. Eggleston's face was a study, too, as he sat in this interview. The perspiration dropped from his brow, and his great red beard was all awry. Wiltshire at 8 o'clock left the bank and walked to the corner of Dearborn and Monroe streets, where he met the young tellow who had accompanied him on the train, and who had before this left the bank for the Richelieu Hotel. The young fellow's pockets bulged again. The two entered the bank, and in thirty minutes more the council was over. Kershaw had the money to pay his differences and to margin the market. Immediately after the opening of the board of trade the secretary rapped for silence. It was a difficult thing to obtain, but when he finally prevailed he read the following:

"Gentlemen: We are prepared to pay all our clearing house differences and to margin below the market.

C. J. Krassian & C. "

C. J. KERSHAW & CO." A YELL OF DELIGHT broke out at this, and the galleries, which were crowded to suffocation by ladies, responded by the waving of handkerchiefs. The few announcements of several small failures that followed did not session before the opening of Change to-day, for the purpose of deciding whether or not to take any action. It was thought when the meeting was called that it would be best to adjourn the NEY TO LOAN TO ARMY OFFICERS AT LE-dirates of interest. JAMES E. WAUGH, m 933 F st. n.w. board for a day in order to allow the excitement to cool off, but it was finally decided that no action was necessary.

The next point which Mr. Thurman said he should consider was whether the Beil Telephone Co. was a bona fide purchase. What is there in a patent which makes it negotiable and gives to it all the quality of a bill of exchange if the patent was void for any sufficient cause? You cannot breathe the life into that thing and turn it over to the Bell telephone with consideration or without. He then considered the statute of Imitation. The patent was not confined to time in limitation as to receiving its rights unless exin limitation as to seceiving its rights unless ex- comin and place it in the hall of her house until the pressly provided by statute. This was a principle recognized by common law for many centuries. This case has differed from others that have been decided previously. This case had been regularly before the court and the decision common and place it in the namor her nouse that the place was prepared by the Illinois legislature. Mrs. Logan said that Major Rittenhouse, a member of the vestry, was of the same opinion as herself. Dr. Buck had said that he would bring the court and the decision Thurman's further argument was composed largely of a repetition of the arguments of counsellors Lowery and Goode, who had preceded him. THE COMPANY'S CASE OPENED.

Mr. E. L. Dickerson, of New York, then opened the case for the Telephone Co., and dwelt at length upon the question whether the Attorney-General had the power to bring such a suit as that now pending. Courts have repeatedly decided ton barracks, from where the guard of a sergeant that the Attorney-General, representing the President, had no power as now claimed. In all of these cases he has never appealed from the decision of the court to the Supreme Court at Washington to find out whether he was right or not. Mr. Dickerson then considered Mr. Thurman's argument that patent cases and land patent cases were similar in the authority exercised over them by the Attorney-General, and claimed that the two classes of cases were entirely different, and cited from the records of the Supreme Court

A Pleuro-Pneumonia Scare.

REPORTS THAT INFECTED CATTLE ARE BROUGHT TO THE DISTRICT. It was reported to Chief Clerk McGinn, of the health office, yesterday, that most of the cattle arriving in this city from outside places were affected with the pleuro-pneumonia. The person who gave the information said that the city of Baltimore had quarantined against cattle from Maryland, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. Last week the centleman said there were more cattle sold in this city than there were in Baltimore. Mr. McGinn said to a STAR reporter this afternoon that they would investigate the statements made, to ascertain, if possible, whether there was any foundation for them, and if they found upon investigation that there were any cases of the disease in this city they would report the facts to the National Bureau of Animal Industry and do what they could to the matter. try and do what they could in the matter. THE TENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY Of the Rev.

THE TENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Jno. S. Lindsay was pleasantly celebrated last night at their home. Their parishioners notified them of their intention, and provided a fine large wedding cake, with other dainties, which were enjoyed. There was a very large representation of the parish present, for Dr. Lindsay is evidently held in great esteem and respect. Many unique, and even valuable tokens, significant of the day, and proof of the reverence and affection felt by the people here for Dr. Lindsay, were brought and displayed—and some of the realist kind of "in," this being "a tin wedding."

witnessed the burning. Ever since Atlanta went dry an extraordinary effort has been made by the police authorities to suppress gambling in every form. During the past eighteen months the police have raided many gambling establishments and captured a large quantity of the lay-outs, and these things, including fare lay-outs, roulette tables, fortune wheels, rouge-et-noir outfits, chucklick boxes, poker tables and chips, markers, decks of cards, and dice boxes, made over six large wagon loads. They were hauled to the most public corner in the city and dumped in two large piles. The tables and fortune wheels and faroboards were broken and split into small pieces. Some of the furniture was new and costly. The aggregate values of the two piles of fuel was not less than $10,000.
